Reader ?appalled? by Abel?s comments

(Re: Aurora Votes 2018: Abel aims to undo ?costly? Council decisions, September 27)

I was appalled by John Abel's arrogant ad hominem attacks on his fellow "timid and uncritical" councillors in this week's Auroran.
I have watched Council. I know several hard-working councillors.
Abel is asserting a fantasy.
It is his unfortunate position that only he knows where Aurora should go and how to get there.
His supercilious remarks confirm he should not be given the office he seeks.
