

?No charge? from business made reader?s day

I had to pull off Yonge Street and Murray Drive recently as something was wrong with my glasses. The nose piece thingy had broken off.

When the gentleman at the optical store there handed the repaired glasses back to me, there was no charge.

That sort of thing to me is about as rare as a doctor who makes house calls, and most welcomed.

Maybe there is a Santa.

Merry Christmas everyone!

Bill Hack

Aurora

(Editor's note: Yes, Bill, there is a Santa Claus.)