

NORTHERN LIGHTS: December Horoscopes

By Jodie Cara Lindley

Sagittarius (November 22 ? December 21)

Your inner life seeks expansion in December, Sagittarius. Turn your attention to the world within, and review all you have accomplished this year. It may have been a tough go, but things will be easier. It is time to review, revise and rework your goals.

Capricorn (December 22 ? January 19)

Empowerment is key for you in December, Capricorn. Be who you are and move towards your goals with confidence. You will feel a great lightening-of-your-load happening this month. It is time for you to come out of the darkness, into the light.

Aquarius (January 20 ? February 18)

Operate from your heart this month, Aquarius. Life is getting lighter and better for you. Over the next few months, you will be reworking old ground, but by mid-2015 you will feel more movement and freedom. Shake off the dead weight.

Pisces (February 19 ? March 20)

You are truly blossoming, Pisces. This month, question your life, and how to move onwards. Have faith and open to your highest potential. Review how far you have become, so that you can be the brightest star in the future. Things are moving for you.

Aries (March 21 ? April 19)

There is ample opportunity for joy this December, Aries. Focus on love: your loved ones and what you love. Commit to both, and the changes and recognition that they bring. You will be moving with detached ease by the time the New Year arrives.

Taurus (April 20 ? May 20)

Relationships will be key in December, Taurus. They will be moving, inspiring, unpredictable and transformational. Sounds like a challenge? What relationship isn't! Connect to the earth and ground yourself if you feel stretched beyond comfort.

Gemini (May 21 ? June 20)

December may test you Gemini. Things will move and change, expand and contract, and slip between your fingers. In the end, you will enter 2015 a whole new person, with a whole new perspective. Reflect on 2014 as a whole, and how different you feel.

Cancer (June 21 ? July 21)

Information is key for you in December, Cancer. Balance what you know with what you learn. Receive and flow with what life offers to you. It is time to get in touch with your feminine side: the nurturing, receptive and intuitive presence that guides you.

Leo (July 22 ? August 22)

Freedom is your keyword in December, Leo. Hurrah! Come out of your shell and allow your light to be seen. Welcome insight, information and expansion. By the end of December, you will know which plan to put into action. Follow your dreams!

Virgo (August 23 ? September 22)

What a month for you, Virgo! Illumination is your key word: shine your light and be open. It will be a month of change, measured effort, movement and intensity. If this makes you nervous, just breathe. By the New Year, your whole perspective will have changed.

Libra (September 23 ? October 22)

Cultivate an attitude of gratitude this month, Libra. Be thankful for all you have, and all that arrives, even if it is challenging. Relationships will go through some shifts near the end of December, so do what is required to be flexible and gracious.

Scorpio (October 23 ? November 21)

Celebrate Scorpio! Take December to have fun and lighten up. While there is still work to do, and things to manage and adjust, there is an air of impartiality that will serve you well. Things that were not working before, will get the go ahead.
