

Time to beautify water management area in west Aurora

The Lake Simcoe Region Conservation Authority, along with municipalities, have built a water management area in Aurora at Bathurst Street and McClelland Way.

If anyone has been past the one in Richmond Hill at Bathurst and Mill, I think they would agree it is a most beautiful sight, with public pathways, gazebos, etc.

I can picture this on a smaller scale at the one in Aurora.

Bill Hack

Aurora